

SCHOLARSHIP FUND RECOGNITION PROGRAM

The conference center industry needs to attract the best and brightest employees of tomorrow, and we must struggle to do so within the highly competitive hospitality employment market. Through the scholarship fund and publicity about IACC's scholarships, we can raise the awareness of the industry generally. More importantly, our primary goal is to heighten the industry's prestige within an arena critical to continued growth and development—the sphere of colleges and universities that train our future employees.

If you'd like to be part of this major initiative, here is the description of contribution levels and their associated recognition.
