(a) Full Member, meaning any natural person, body corporate, corporation, firm, partnership, association or society, whether incorporated or not, who/which operates a residential or non-residential conference venue which meets IACC Quality Standards and is approved by the IACC-AP Board of Directors (or as delegated to a committee) to be admitted to Full Membership. The facility must be located within the geographical boundaries of Europe and includes Africa and the Middle East until such time as critical mass warrants the formation of a distinct chapter in that region and if in the judgment of the IACC-AP Board, the facility's primary market is as a conference venue providing a total environment conducive to meetings and conferences. Membership will be awarded Full Member status once the applicant venue meets the following qualifications:

- The Conference Venue is open for business.
- The Conference Venue has been inspected by a representative as appointed by the IACC-AP Board of Directors.

(i) Provisional Member. The Board may accept as provisional members conference venues, which have a confirmed construction schedule and which show convincing evidence that they will meet the IACC Quality Standards when they open. IACC will only consider applications for provisional membership from properties that are ground-up construction. No property that already conducts hospitality business and maintains an operating market presence during the transition to IACC-style conference business is eligible for provisional membership. The acceptance of any provisional member shall be conditional upon a site inspection after opening which confirms that the conference venue meets the IACC Quality Standards. Provisional members shall be entitled to use the seal/logo as part of their identity as a member of this association unless the Board denies such use by majority vote.

(ii) In order to maintain consistency in the membership and assure compliance with appropriate criteria for membership, it shall be the policy of this association to review all Active Member facilities within the chapter's jurisdiction at least once every four years of the respective period of membership. The CEO shall administer this policy through the Membership Committee and submit a report to the Board of Directors.

(iii) One member per facility shall act as primary contact, but anyone employed by a member facility shall be entitled to membership benefits. Active members have voting privileges, with one vote per facility.

(b) Corporate Member, mean any natural person, body corporate, corporation, firm, partnership, association or society, whether incorporated or not, who/which is involved in owning or management of two (2) or more conference venues (which are admitted Full Membership) and is approved by the IACC-AP Board of Directors to be admitted to Corporate Membership.

If an application for membership is approved by the IACC-AP Board of Directors;

17.1 The resolution to accept the membership must be recorded in minutes of the following Board of Directors Meeting; and

17.2 The Registrar must, as soon as practicable, enter the member's details and the date of becoming a member, in the register of members within the Chapter covering the local area of the new member,

17.3 A member becomes a member of the Association and, subject to these By-Laws is entitled to exercise their rights of membership from the date, whichever is the later, on which

17.3.1 The IACC-AP Executive Board of Directors approves the applicant's membership.

17.3.2 The applicant pays the joining fee.

18. GENERAL RIGHTS OF MEMBERSHIP®

A member of the Association who is entitled to vote has the right;

18.1 to receive notice of general meetings in the manner and time prescribed by these By-Laws; and

18.1.1 to submit items of business for consideration at a board meeting via the Chief Executive Officer; and

18.1.2 to have access to the minutes of board meetings and other documents of the Association as provided under these By-Laws; and 18.1.3 to inspect the register of members, minutes of general meetings, the financial records, books, securities and other relevant documents including minutes of the board meetings (the board may refuse to permit a member to inspect records of the association that relate to confidential, personal, employment, commercial or legal matters or where to do so may prejudice the interests of the association). All requests are to be made in writing to the Association's Chief Executive Officer and responses will be provided within 15 working days.

18.2 A member is entitled to vote if;

18.2.1 The member is a Full, Associate, Corporate or Individual member; and 18.2.2 More than 10 days have passed since they became a member.

18.2.3 The Member's membership rights have not been suspended for any reason.

18.3 The rights of membership are not transferrable and end immediately when membership ceases by;

18.3.1 The membership ceases on resignation, expulsion or death, whereby the Registrar as soon as practicable will enter the date of membership cessation in the register of members.

18.4 A member is taken to have resigned if;

18.4.1 the member's annual subscription is more than 3 months in arrears; or

18.4.2 the CEO has made a written request to the member to confirm that they or their wishes to remain a member; and 18.4.3 the member has not, within 3 months after receiving that request, confirmed in writing that they or their wishes to remain a member.

19. EXPULSION OF MEMBER®

19.1 The IACC-AP Board of Directors may terminate the membership of any member without their consent by giving them written notice if, in the reasonable opinion of the directors:

19.1.1 they are guilty of conduct which has or is likely to have a serious adverse effect on the Association or bring the Association or any or all of the Members and directors into disrepute; or

19.1.2 they acted or have threatened to act in a manner which is contrary to the interests of the Association as a whole;

19.1.3 they have failed to observe the terms of these Articles and the By-laws; or

19.1.4 they fail to meet or maintain the criteria for membership maintained by the directors from time to time.

Following such termination, the Member shall be removed from the Register of Members by the CEO.

19.2 The notice to the Member must give the Member the opportunity to be heard in writing or in person as to why their membership should not be terminated. The directors must consider any representations made by the Member and inform the Member of their decision following such consideration. There shall be no right to appeal from a decision of the directors to terminate the membership of a Member.

19.3 A member may resign by giving at least one months notice before the end of the membership year, which relates to them provided that there is no outstanding subscription or other money due from them to the Association.

19.4 A Member whose membership is terminated or who resigns under this Article shall not be entitled to a refund of any subscription or membership fee and if their membership has been terminated or they resigns they shall remain liable to pay to the Association any subscription or other sum owed by them.

20. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Association shall be managed by the IACC-AP Board of Directors as outlined in these By-Laws;

21. EXISTING DIRECTORS®

21.1 The Members of the Board of Directors of the Association in office immediately prior to the meeting to approve the revised By-Laws shall continue following such adoption of the By-Laws for the period of appointment until completion of the term they were serving at the adoption data. After this meeting the positions of Directors shall be filled, vacated and otherwise dealt with in accordance with these By-Laws.

22. POWERS OF THE BOARD®

Subject to the Act and the By-Laws, the business of the IACC-AP Chapter shall be managed and the Board shall exercise the powers of the IACC-AP Chapter. In particular, the Board shall act in accordance with the Objects and shall operate for the benefit of the Members and the community throughout the local area.

23. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD ℗

Composition of the Board

23.1 The Board shall comprise:

23.1.1 This association shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

23.1.2 Only persons who are currently employed by a Full, Associate, Individual or Corporate Headquarters member organisation in good standing shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Directors.

23.1.3 A maximum of three directors from any single member organisation or its affiliates may serve concurrently on the Board of Directors. In the event that any such member organisation gains a seat through merger, acquisition or employment of an existing director, the organisation must advise IACC which of its directors will resign and such directors chapter shall replace the director.

23.1.4 In the event that a director ceases to be employed by a Full, Associate, Individual or Corporate Headquarters member in good standing, that director may continue to serve for a maximum of six months from the last day of employment, after which time the director shall vacate his or her seat. The Board of Directors may fill or not fill the vacancy.

23.1.5 At the end of six months from the last day of employment by a Full, Associate, individual or Corporate Headquarters member in good standing, a director (or officer) who has completed at least one full term may continue to serve through the end of his or her term as an Individual member, provided he or she applies and is accepted as such a member in good standing.

23.1.6 The CEO shall serve as an ex officio member of the Board of Directors.

24. PORTFOLIOS AND RESPONSIBILITIES ℗

The Board may allocate portfolios of responsibilities to directors upon appointment and those Directors so appointed will be responsible to the board for the delivery of those specific portfolio responsibilities in a manner determined by the board executive. A definition of affiliate is reserve for the judgement of the Board of Directors.

25. ELECTED DIRECTORS®

Nomination for Board ℗

25.1 The IACC-AP Chapter may choose the manner in which they select their representatives for the Board of Directors, provided the process is articulated to the Board of Directors in advance of such appointment.

25.2 The Board shall determine qualifications required of directors and job descriptions as may be required for the role from time to time.

25.3 All directors act in the best interests of the organisation globally and the Chapter.

25.4 All directors elected by the IACC-AP Chapter to also serve on the Board of the International Association of Conference Centres (IACC), must be authorised by the Chapter Board of Directors, to act in accordance with the best interests of the Chapter without reference to the Chapter for a decision but should report all matters affecting their chapter at first meeting of their Chapter board following the decision.

25.5 Decisions made by elected Directors serving on the Board of the International Association of Conference Centres cannot be overturned by their Chapter board at a subsequent meeting of their Chapter however all Directors retain the right to request listing of matters for the Board's consideration.

25.6 Before accepting a Director position, all candidates should clearly understand that Board participation involves a commitment of time, travel and resources; a Director's organisation must be willing to fund all expenses in connection with the Director's service on the Board.

25.7 Term of Appointment for Elected Directors

25.7.1 Directors elected shall be elected for a term of two years. Subject to provisions in the By-Laws relating to early retirement or removal of Directors, elected Directors shall remain in office from the 1st January in the year following, which the election occurred until the 31st December of the second year following.

25.7.2 Following the adoption of the By-Laws, there shall be no limit on the number of consecutive terms able to be served, provided they continue to be elected by the IACC-AP Board of Directors.

25.7.3 Any director elected shall immediately take the seat at the first convened meeting of the board following their election, and the person holding the seat being replaced shall vacate the seat at that time.

25.7.4 In the event that a director vacates his or her seat on the Board of Directors, the Board shall fill or not fill that vacancy as follows: if the director who vacated the seat has less than one full year (three Board meetings) left in his or her term, the Board shall not fill that vacancy. If the director who has vacated the seat has one full year (four Board meetings) or more left in his or her term, the Board shall fill that vacancy with the person who had the next highest number of votes, but who was not elected, in the previous election. If that person is no longer eligible to serve on the Board, the Board may, by majority vote, elect an Full, Associate, Individual or Corporate Headquarters member to fill said vacancy for the remainder of the term.

25.7.5 Any director appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors shall serve the unexpired term, and at the end of said term shall be eligible to be elected to another full two-year term.

25.7.6 Only three Full, Associate or Corporate Headquarters members from any one company or its affiliates may serve concurrently on the Board of Directors. In the event that any such member organisation gains a fourth seat on the Board through merger, acquisition or employment of an existing director or officer, the organisation must advise IACC by the next Board meeting which of its directors will resign at the end of that director's term. The organisation shall not, however, be entitled to more than three votes during that period. For purposes of this By-Law, an affiliate is any organisation, which is related to another through ownership or majority ownership in a parent, sister or subsidiary capacity.

25.7.7 No Full, Associate or Corporate Headquarters member organisation shall be entitled to have more candidates who are employed by that organisation in an election for the Board of Directors than the number which, if all elected, would result in that organisation having more than three seats on the Board of Directors.

25.7.8 The number of Directors may be increased or decreased by a vote of a majority of all the members or Directors, but no decrease in the number of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent Director.

26. OFFICERS®

26.1.1 The Board shall appoint a Chair from among its number. The Chair shall be the nominal head of the Chapter and will act as Managing Director and as chair of any Board meeting at which they are present. If the chairperson is not present, or is unwilling or unable to preside at a Board meeting the remaining Directors shall appoint another Director to preside as chair for that meeting only.

26.1.2 The Chair and three Vice-Chairs shall serve automatically as a chapter nominee of the board of the International Association of Conference Centres (IACC). Should a Vice-Chair not be in a position to service on the board of the International Association of Conference Centres (IACC), the Executive officers seek nominations and appoint appoint a representative from the main board of directors.

26.1.3 The Board shall appoint three Vice Chair's among its number. The Vice Chairs nominated by the Chair shall act as chair of any Board meeting at which the Chair is not present, and shall have all of the power and authority of the Chair at such meetings. If the Vice-chairperson is not present, or is unwilling or unable to preside at a Board meeting the remaining Directors shall appoint another Director to preside as chair for that meeting only.

26.1.4 Of the three elected Vice Chairs, the Chair shall also appoint one Vice Chair as having financial management responsibilities, and except to the extent delegated by the Board to the Chief Executive Officer shall carry financial responsibility for the association.

26.1.5 The Board may at any time by majority, choose to adopt any title of position name for executive board membership and shall be free to increase or decrease the number among themselves of executive positions as deemed by them to be appropriate to meet the objects of the association.

26.1.6 No later than 30 days prior to the end of the year, the Board of Directors shall, by majority vote, elect officers. The pre-qualification shall be a current director who has served on the Board for at least one full year. In the event that there is not sufficient number of qualified candidates, the Board may elect directors who are closest to the pre-qualifications stated.

GROUNDS FOR TERMINATION OF A DIRECTOR

26.2 In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by virtue of the Act, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

26.2.1 becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally.

26.2.2 becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in anyway under the law relating to mental health.

26.2.3 resigns their office in writing to the Association.

26.2.4 is absent without the consent of the Board from more than two meetings of the Board held during a period of twelve months without board consent. Any Director who shall have been physically absent from three regular meetings of the Board of Directors in any 12-month period shall vacate his or her seat on the Board of Directors and the vacancy shall be filled as prescribed by these By-Laws; however, at the written request of such Director received at the IACC office within 15 days of the missed meeting, the Executive Committee shall consider each absence as a separate circumstance and may expressly waive such absence by affirmative vote of the majority of its members. In the event that the Executive Committee cannot act because of conflict of interest or is unable to reach a majority decision, the matter shall devolve to the Board of Directors for resolution.

26.2.5 is appointed to or submits an application for any office of employment with the Association.

26.2.6 is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or arrangement of any kind or proposed contract or arrangement of any kind with the Association and fails to declare the nature of that interest.

26.2.7 in the opinion of the Board (but subject always to the By-Laws):

26.2.8 has acted in a manner unbecoming or prejudicial to the Objects and interests of the Association

26.2.9 has brought the Association into disrepute.

26.2.10 is removed by Special Resolution; or

26.2.11 would otherwise be prohibited from being a director of a corporation under the Laws of Australia or any other jurisdiction.

26.3 The Executive Committee shall have met with the Director in question, investigated the facts of the complaint and deemed the complaint to have substance. In the event that the Executive Committee cannot act because of conflict of interest or is unable to reach a decision on the substance of the claim, the matter shall devolve to the Board of Directors for resolution. A vote of the majority of Board members shall be required, excluding the Director in question and any Board member who is an employee of the same organisation in which the Director in question is employed.

26.4 In the event the position of Chair becomes vacant prior to the completion of their term, for whatever reason, the Board shall fill the vacancy by an election process of their choosing and elect a director from their number to complete the unexpired term of the officer, whose position became available.

26.5 On completion of that term the officer elected in accordance with clause 26.4 may stand for re-election.

27. Board May Act:

27.1.1 In the event of a casual vacancy or vacancies in the office of a Director or Directors, the remaining Directors may act.

27.1.2 Directors absent from any meeting may submit their proxy via an appropriate means to a designated director or Chairman of the meeting. The Chair must be in possession of the appropriate proxy prior to it being exercised by any director. If designated as a proxy, one director may vote on behalf of another director who is absent from a meeting on all issues, including the election of officers. No director may act as the designated proxy for more than two other directors during a single meeting.

27.1.3 However, if the number of remaining Directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Board, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to a number sufficient to constitute a quorum.

28. RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

28.1 A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairt or Chief Executive Officer of the Association, effective upon receipt; acceptance shall not be necessary to make it effective.

28.2 It shall be the responsibility of all Board members to advise the Board of IACC of any changes in employment status, which may require evaluation of their qualifications to remain on the Board.

29. DECISIONS BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS®

29.1 The Board of Directors may act in place and instead of the members on all matters, except those, if any, specifically reserved by the members in these By-Laws. All such actions of the Board shall be considered binding upon all members of the association.

29.2 A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when:

29.2.1 all Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

29.2.2 A majority of Directors cast a vote for or against a motion being considered by the Board.

29.3 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

29.4 A resolution in writing that has been signed or assented to by email, letter, facsimile, or other form of visible or other electronic communication by all the directors for the time being present shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more of the directors.

29.5 Any such matter or transaction approved by vote of the Board of Directors under clause 33 shall be formally reported at the next meeting of the Board of Directors as a formal record of such action having been taken between formal meetings of the Board.

30. CALLING OF DIRECTORS' MEETING℗

30.1 Any director may call a directors' meeting by giving not less than ten Business Days' notice of the meeting (or such lesser notice as all the directors may agree) to the directors or by authorising the Association Chief Executive Officer (if any) to give such notice.

30.2 Notice of a directors' meeting shall be given to each director in writing unless otherwise agreed by the board to accept another method of notice.

30.3 Directors may choose the time and method of their meetings and considerable flexibility is granted in consideration attempts to find times which are suitable and reasonable to meet other than face to face.

31. QUORUM FOR DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

31.1 Subject to Article 31.2, the quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of directors is fifty per cent plus one of Board of Directors.

31.2 For the purposes of any meeting (or part of a meeting) held pursuant to Article 33 to authorise a Conflict, if there is only one Director in office other than the Interested Director(s) (defined in Article 33.1), the quorum for such meeting (or part of a meeting) shall be one Director.

31.3 If the total number of directors in office for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

31.3.1 to appoint further directors; or

31.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the Members to appoint further directors.

32. CASTING VOTE

32.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal at a meeting of directors are equal, the Chair if chairing the meeting shall cast a casting vote to break the deadlock. If The Chairman does not exercise a casting vote, the motion will be lost.

32.2 Article 36.1 shall not apply in respect of a particular meeting (or part of a meeting) if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chair is not the Chairman for the purposes of that meeting (or part of a meeting).

33. DIRECTORS' CONFLICTS OF INTEREST℗

33.1 The directors may, in accordance with the requirements set out in this article, authorise any Conflict proposed to them by any director which would, if not authorised, involve a director (an Interested Director) breaching their duty under the Act to avoid conflicts of interest.

33.2 Any authorisation under this Article 30 shall be effective only if:

33.2.1 the matter in question shall have been proposed by any director for consideration in the same way that any other matter may be proposed to the directors under the provisions of these Articles;

33.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum for consideration of the relevant matter is met without counting the Interested Director; and 33.2.3 the matter was agreed to without the Interested Director voting or would have been agreed to if the Interested Director's vote had not been counted.

33.3 Any authorisation of a Conflict under this Article 30 may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):

33.3.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter or situation so authorised;

33.3.2 provide that the Interested Director be excluded from the receipt of documents and information and the participation in discussions (whether at meetings of the directors or otherwise) related to the Conflict;

33.3.3 provide that the Interested Director shall or shall not be a Director in respect of any future decision of the directors in relation to any resolution related to the Conflict;

33.3.4 impose upon the Interested Director such other terms for the purposes of dealing with the Conflict as the directors think fit;

33.3.5 provide that, where the Interested Director obtains, or has obtained (through their involvement in the Conflict and otherwise than through their position as a director of the Association) information that is confidential to a third party, they shall not be obliged to disclose that information to the Association, or to use it in relation to the Association’s affairs where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence; and

33.3.6 permit the Interested Director to absent themselves from the discussion of matters relating to the Conflict at any meeting of the directors and be excused from reviewing papers prepared by, or for the directors to the extent they relate to such matters.

33.4 Where the directors authorise a Conflict, the Interested Director shall be obliged to conduct themselves in accordance with any terms and conditions imposed by the directors in relation to the Conflict.

33.5 The directors may revoke or vary such authorisation at any time, but this shall not affect anything done by the Interested Director prior to such revocation or variation in accordance with the terms of such authorisation.

33.6 A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the Association for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which they derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a Conflict which has been authorised by the directors in accordance with these Articles or by the Association in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation) and no contract shall be liable to be avoided on such grounds.

33.7 Subject to the Act, and provided they have declared the nature and extent of their interest in accordance with the requirements of the Act, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in an existing or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Association:

33.7.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Association or in which the Association is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested;

33.7.2 shall be a Director for the purposes of any proposed decision of the directors in respect of such existing or proposed transaction or arrangement in which they are interested;

33.7.3 shall be entitled to vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors or participate in any unanimous decision, in respect of such existing or proposed transaction or arrangement in which they are interested;

33.7.4 may act by themself or their firm in a professional capacity for the Association (otherwise than as auditor) and they or their firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director;

33.7.5 may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to a transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate in which the Association is otherwise (directly or indirectly) interested; and 33.7.6 shall not, save as they may otherwise agree, be accountable to the Association for any benefit which they (or a person connected with them, derives from any such transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit nor shall the receipt of any such remuneration or other benefit constitute a breach of their duty under the Act.

34. RECORDS OF DECISIONS TO BE KEPT

34.1 Where decisions of the directors are taken by electronic means, such decisions shall be recorded by the directors in permanent form, so that they may be read with the naked eye.

34.2 Minutes shall be kept of all meetings of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee.

35. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

35.1 Subject to clause 29 unless otherwise determined by decision by majority vote of the Board of Directors, the number of directors shall not be less than 5 directors and shall not exceed eighteen (18) in total.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Board may elect an Executive Committee to perform such functions as are delegated to it.

The Executive Committee may act in place and instead of the Board between Board meetings on all matters, except those specifically reserved to the Board by these By-Laws, pursuant to delegation of authority to such committee by the Board. Actions of the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board at the next scheduled/called Board meeting.

The Executive Committee consists of the Chair, and three Vice Chairs, all of whom shall take office on January 1 for two (2) years. At the end of the two-year term, officers are eligible for re-election to the same office. All officers serve concurrently as directors.

The CEO shall serve as an ex officio member of the Executive Committee.

The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Board, shall have the power to transact all of the usual, necessary and regular business of the association as may be required (except to the extent delegated by the Board to the CEO and, with such prior authorisation of the Board as may be required by these By-Laws, to execute such contracts, deeds, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, leases and other documents as shall be required by the association; and, in general, the Chair shall perform all such other duties incident to the office of Chair and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned by the Board.

A Vice Chair nominated by the Chair shall act in the absence of the Chair and, when so acting, shall have all the power and authority of the Chair. Further, the three Vice Chairs shall have such other and further duties as may from time to time be assigned by the Board. One such responsibility being that at any time, there is a Vice Chair with specific responsibilities relating to financial management.

SELECTION PROCESS

No later than sixty (30) days prior to the last annual Board of Directors Meeting, a call of candidates is made to fill open positions on the Executive Committee. The committee shall announce the nominations at the Board Meeting, at which time a formal vote shall be held for the purpose of electing the officers. Prior to the vote, all currently serving directors can self nominate for a role on the Executive Committee.

A director who is a candidate for election as an officer may not act as the designated proxy for any other director during the election for said office.

MAXIMUM REPRESENTATION
Only one Full, Associate, Individual or Corporate Headquarters member from any one company or its affiliates may serve on the Executive Committee at any time. In the event that any such member organisation gains a second seat on the Executive Committee through merger, acquisition or employment of an existing officer, the organisation must advise IACC by the next Board Meeting which of the officers will immediately vacate his or her seat on the Executive Committee; that person will continue to serve as a director until the end of his or her current term. The Board shall fill the vacated position on the Executive Committee in accordance with the By-Laws. For purposes of this By-Law, an affiliate is any organisation that is related to another through ownership in a parent, sister or subsidiary capacity.

VACANCIES
In the event the position of Chair is vacated prior to the completion of his or her term, nominations will be sought and the board will vote for a replacement Chair. Any other vacancy occurring on the Executive Committee may be filled by a majority vote of the Board and shall be a current director. Any Director appointed to fill a vacancy on the Executive Committee shall serve the unexpired term, and at the end of said term shall be eligible for re-election to the same office.

REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION
Any member of the Executive committee may be removed, with cause, by the vote of a majority of the entire Board at any meeting of the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chair or the CEO. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified in the written notice; and, unless otherwise specified in the notice, the acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

MEETINGS
The Executive Committee meets at the call of the Chair or at the request of two (2) members of the committee with notice of such time and place given by the Chair or CEO.

A majority of the Executive Committee constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of the majority of the Executive Committee present at a meeting of the Executive Committee at which a quorum is present in person shall be the act of the Executive Committee.

36. DELEGATIONS ℗

Board may Delegate Functions

36.1 The Board may, by instrument in writing, create, establish or appoint special committees, task forces, officers and consultants to carry out specific duties and functions.

36.2 The instrument will determine what powers these officers or committees are given. In exercising its power under this clause, the Board must take into account broad stakeholder involvement.

Delegation by Instrument

36.3 In the establishing instruments, the Board may delegate such functions as are specified in the instrument, other than:

36.3.1 this power of delegation; and

36.3.2 a function imposed on the Board or any senior administrative or executive officer by the Act, any other law, the By-Laws, or by resolution of the Association in a General Meeting.

Delegated Function Exercised in Accordance with Terms

36.4 A function, the exercise of which has been delegated under this clause, may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

Procedure of Delegated Entity

36.5 The procedures for any entity or person exercising delegated power shall, subject to the By-Laws and with any necessary or incidental amendment, be the same as that applicable to meetings of the Board under clause 33.

36.6 The entity or person exercising delegated powers shall make decisions in accordance with the Objects, and it shall promptly provide the Board with details of all material decisions and recommendations. The entity or person shall also provide any other reports, minutes and information required by the Board.

Delegation May Be Conditional

36.7 A delegation under this clause may be made subject to certain conditions or limitations regarding the exercise of any function. These shall be specified in the delegation.

Revocation of Delegation

36.8 At any time the Board may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation made under this clause. It may amend or repeal any decision made by a body or person under this clause.

36.9 A Chief Executive Officer may be employed by the Association who shall report to the Board to be directly responsible for the administration and management of the day-to-day programs and affairs of the Association within the delegation provided by the Board for that purpose.

36.10 The Board shall by resolution, authorise the Association to open and close bank accounts and handle other banking transactions. Disbursement shall be made by electronic funds transfer or by check within the delegated terms provided by the Board's instrument of delegation.

37. ACCOUNTING RECORDS®

37.1 The Directors must keep accounting records as required by the Corporations Laws.

37.2 The accounting records must at all times be open to inspection by the directors and shall be audited for accuracy in accordance with legislative requirements or more frequently if decided by the Board of Directors.

37.3 At all times the accounting practices of the Association shall be in accordance with International Accounting Standards.

38. BY-LAWS®

The directors may establish by-laws governing matters relating to IACC-AP administration that are required from time to time for the effective operation of the Chapter (for example, the provisions relating to classes of members, membership fees and subscriptions and the admission criteria for members). If there is a conflict between the terms of these Articles and any by-laws established under this Article, the terms of these Articles shall prevail.

39. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

39.1 Subject to Article 39.2, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a relevant officer is otherwise entitled:

39.1.1 each relevant officer shall be indemnified out of the Association's assets against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by them as a relevant officer in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties, or in relation to them;

including any liability incurred by them in defending any civil or criminal proceedings, in which judgment is given in their favour or in which they is acquitted or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on their part or in connection with any application in which the court grants them, in their capacity as a relevant officer, relief from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Association's (or any associated Association's) affairs; and 39.1.2 the Association may provide any relevant officer with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by them in connection with any proceedings or application referred to in Article 39.1.1 and otherwise may take any action to enable any such relevant officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

39.2 This article does not authorise any indemnity to the extent that such indemnity would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law and any such indemnity is limited accordingly.

39.3 The directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Association, for the benefit of any relevant officer in respect of any relevant loss.

39.4 In this article:

39.4.1 companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate; and

39.4.2 a "relevant loss" means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant officer in connection with that relevant officer's duties or powers in relation to the Association, any associated Association or any pension fund or employees' share scheme of the Association or associated Association; and

39.4.3 a "relevant officer" means any director or other officer or former director or other officer of the Association.

40. SEAL

40.1 The Association may have a Seal upon which its corporate name shall appear in legible characters.

41. The Seal shall not be used without the express authorisation of the Board. Every use of the Seal shall be recorded in the Association’s minute book. Two directors must witness every use of the Seal, unless the Board determines otherwise.

42. BUSINESS

42.1 The business to be transacted at meetings of the board of directors and includes the consideration of accounts and the reports of the Board and auditors.

42.2 All business that is transacted at a general meeting with the exception of those matters set down in clause 51.1 shall be special business.

42.3 No business other than that stated on the notice for a general meeting shall be transacted at that meeting.

43. GENERAL MEETING

GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Annual general meetings

43.1 The Board of Directors must convene an annual general meeting of the Association to be held within 5 months after the end of each financial year.

43.2 Despite subrule (43.1), the Association may hold its first annual general meeting at any time within 18 months after its incorporation.

43.3 The Board of Directors may determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.

43.4 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows—

43.4.1 to confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since then;

43.4.2 receive and consider the annual report of the board on the activities of the Association during the preceding financial year; and the financial statements of the Association for the preceding financial year submitted by the board in accordance with the Bylaws;

43.4.3 to elect the members of the Board of Directors unless elected by other means as set by majority vote of the board of directors.

43.4.4 to confirm or vary the amounts (if any) of the annual subscription and joining fee.

43.5 The annual general meeting may also conduct any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these Rules.

Special general meetings

43.6 Any general meeting of the Association, other than an annual general meeting or a disciplinary appeal meeting, is a special general meeting.

43.7 The board of directors may convene a special general meeting whenever it thinks fit.

43.8 No business other than that set out in the notice under rule 43.3 may be conducted at the meeting.

Note General business may be considered at the meeting if it is included as an item for consideration in the notice under rule 43.3 and the majority of members at the meeting agree.

Special general meeting held at request of members

43.9 The Board of Directors must convene a special general meeting if a request to do so is made in accordance with subrule (2) by at least 10% of the total number of members.

43.9.1 A request for a special general meeting must—

(a) be in writing; and

(b) state the business to be considered at the meeting and any resolutions to be proposed; and

(c) include the names and signatures of the members requesting the meeting; and

(d) be given to the Secretary.

(3) If the Committee does not convene a special general meeting within one month after the date on which the request is made, the members making the request (or any of them) may convene the special general meeting.

(4) A special general meeting convened by members under subrule (3)—

(a) must be held within 3 months after the date on which the original request was made; and

(b) may only consider the business stated in that request.

43.0 The Association must reimburse all reasonable expenses incurred by the members convening a special general meeting under subrule (3).

Notice of general meetings

43.1 The Secretary (or, in the case of a special general meeting convened under rule 32(3), the members convening the meeting) must give to each member of the Association—

43.1.1 at least 21 days' notice of a general meeting if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting; or at least 14 days' notice of a general meeting in any other case.

43.1.2 The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and indicate the general nature of each item of business to be considered at the meeting; and

43.1.3 if a special resolution is to be proposed

(a) state in full the proposed resolution; and

(ii) state the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution; and comply with rules for presentation of proxies.

44. (3) This rule does not apply to a disciplinary appeal meeting.

Note: Rule 23(4) sets out the requirements for notice of a disciplinary appeal meeting.

45. NOTICES OF MOTION

Members entitled to vote may submit notices of motion for inclusion as special business at a general meeting. All notices of motion must be submitted in writing to the Association no less than thirty-five days (excluding receiving date and meeting date) prior to the general meeting.

46. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE ®

46.1 The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these rules between a Member and:

46.1.1 another Member; or

46.1.2 the Association.

46.2 The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within fourteen days after the dispute comes to the attention of all parties.

46.3 If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within ten (10) days, refer the dispute for resolution to an independent tribunal established by the board in accordance with the procedures determined by the board from time to time.

46.4 The Board may prescribe additional grievance procedures in the Regulations

47. RECORDS AND ACCOUNTS®

Records

47.1 The Association shall establish and maintain proper records and minutes concerning all of its transactions, business, meetings and dealings (including those of the Association and the Board). It shall produce these as appropriate at each Board or general meeting.

47.2 Proper accounting and other records shall be kept in accordance with the Act. The books of account shall be kept in the care and control of the CEO.

47.3 The Board shall submit the Association's statements of account to the Board of Directors at the general meeting in accordance with the By-Laws and the Act.

47.4 The statements of account, when approved or adopted by a general meeting, shall be conclusive except when errors have been discovered within three months after such approval or adoption.

47.5 The CEO shall cause to be sent to all persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings in accordance with the By-Laws, a copy of the statements of account, the Board's report, the auditor's report and every other document required under the Act (if any).

47.6 All cheques, promissory notes, bankers, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for money paid to the Association, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by any two duly authorised directors or in such other manner as the Board determines.

47.7 A properly qualified auditor or auditors shall be appointed by the Association. The auditor's duties shall be regulated in accordance with the Act. If no relevant provisions exist under the Act the duties shall be regulated in accordance with the International Accounting Standards Board and generally accepted principles and/or any applicable code of conduct. The auditor may be removed by the Association in a general meeting.

47.8 The accounts of the Association shall be examined and the correctness of the profit and loss accounts and balance sheets ascertained by an auditor or auditors at the conclusion of each financial year.

48. INCOME

48.1 Income and property of the Association shall be derived from such sources as the Board determines from time to time.

48.2 The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

Except as prescribed in the By-Laws or the Act:

48.3 no portion of the income or assets or other property of the Association shall inure to the benefit of, be distributed to or among, or revert to any Director, officer, contributor or other private individual having, directly or indirectly, any personal or private interest in the activities of the association, except that the association may pay reasonable compensation under clause 28.4

48.4 Payment in good faith of or to any Member can be made for:

any services actually rendered to the Association whether as an employee, director or otherwise

48.4.1 goods supplied to the Association in the ordinary and usual course of operation

48.4.2 interest on money borrowed from any Member

48.4.3 rent for premises demised or let by any Member to the Association; or 48.4.4 any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a Member on behalf of the Association.

48.5 Nothing in clause 55.4 precludes such payments provided they do not exceed the amount ordinarily payable between ordinary commercial parties dealing at arm's length in a similar transaction.

49. WINDING UP

49.1 Subject to the By-Laws the Association may be wound up in accordance with the Act.

49.1.1 The liability of the Members of the Association is limited.

49.2 Every Member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of it being wound up while a Member, or within one year after ceasing to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before the time at which they ceased to be a Member and towards the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the Association, such an amount not exceeding ten dollars ($10.00).

50. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY ON WINDING UP

If upon winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any assets or property, they shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members. Instead, the assets or property shall be given or transferred to another organisation(s) that has Objects similar to those of the Association. The organisation(s) must prohibit the distribution of its income and property among its Members to an extent at least as great as that imposed on the Association by the By-Laws. The organisation(s) is to be determined by the Board of Directors in a general meeting at or before the time of dissolution.
